Over the years, the Marines have established close working relationships with social welfare agencies, churches and other local community agencies which are qualified to identify those in need. Numerous volunteers play an important role in the distribution of the toys which takes place right before Christmas.

“The ultimate success of ‘Toys for Tots’ depends on the support of the local community and the generosity of the people who donate toys. We highly encourage our neighbors, friends and business associates to join us in supporting this worthwhile campaign,” said Arsenault.
