Paul Davis Restoration in Manchester celebrates anniversary as restoration contractor; hires repair associate

Manchester, NH – May 11, 2011 – Peter Hoiriis of Paul Davis Restoration of Central New Hampshire is celebrating 19 years of business success in central New Hampshire. Hoiriis credits the restoration firm's anniversary milestone to providing a high quality of service and expertise to property owners and insurance professionals, while giving back to the community. The local franchise specializes in emergency restoration, reconstruction and repairs.

Additionally, Hoiriis' son Erik has joined the firm as a repair associate. Erik will be responsible for job estimating, repairs inspection, and project communications with customers and insurance companies. He has more than five years of experience in the construction field.

"Industry knowledge and relationships play an active and daily role in our office. We also give back to our community and its residents by sponsoring public service and awareness events and fundraisers for local charities," said Peter Hoiriis. "Paul Davis offices throughout the country work hard to always do the right thing and implement the latest restoration technologies to serve each and every customer," he said.

Hoiriis' achievement is due to the diligence and expertise of a full and part time staff of employees who dedicate themselves to providing exceptional customer service. "All of our technicians are certified by many of industry's leading training organizations including The Institute of Inspection, Cleaning, and Restoration Certification (IICRC). We work hard to offer a wide variety of professional services to meet virtually all of our customer's restoration and emergency services needs," he said.

Hoiriis also attributes the company's success to spending time and money on advertising and marketing activities, and staffing the office with a dedicated marketing representative who focuses on business to business marketing in the insurance industry, and who implements community service, networking and training workshop activities.

"Most of our work comes during a time of great stress in our customers lives, and we keep that in mind and help them through the process of not only the property repair, but getting their life back to normal," said Hoiriis.

The company specializes in providing emergency services for properties that have been damaged by water, ice, mold, fire, smoke and vandalism, to name a few. For more information about Paul Davis Restoration, call 603.622.9800 or email phoiriis@pdr-usa.net. Visit the website at www.pdrnh.com.
