Paul Davis Restoration staff member receives national sales milestone award

Jacksonville, Fla. - July 13, 2011 - Marguerite and Mike Mumford, Paul Davis Restoration of North Florida office owners, recently announced that Kindra George, senior associate has received a top award for $25 million in lifetime sales for the company. She is the first woman in the Paul Davis network of 262 offices to reach the high mark since the franchise company began in 1966. George received the honor during Paul Davis Restoration Inc.'s national convention held in Palm Beach, Fla. She received the recognition from her peers for top sales in restoration, reconstruction and emergency services. She has been employed with the office since 1994 and serves customers in Duval, Clay, Baker and Nassau counties

“Kindra inspires us all to do our best. She possesses a solid work commitment and provides exceptional customer service to local residents and business owners who have suffered devastating losses from fires, flooding, vandalism, and other catastrophic events,” said Marguerite Mumford.

“We also admire Kindra for her work in the community and caring for individuals in need. She is an exceptional company employee and local business leader,” she said. “We have recognized her for strong sales ability, personal and professional attributes, and service to Paul Davis,” said Mumford.

Specifically, George is trained and certified from the Institute of Inspection, Cleaning and Restoration Certification (IICRC) in water, fire and smoke damage restoration, carpet cleaning, Applied Microbial Remediation, Applied Structural Drying, odor control, upholstery and fabric cleaning; textile cleaning, and is EPA approved in lead paint safety for renovations, repairs and painting. She is also a certified renovator from the Paul Davis Restoration National Training Center in Jacksonville.

George holds a degree from the University of Florida in Gainesville, Fla. She began her career at Paul Davis as a mitigation supervisor in the emergency services department and advanced to a senior associate position. In her 17 years of experience, Kindra has earned a Master Restorer's Designation from the IICRC. Additionally, Kindra is an expert at Xactimate and other restoration industry reporting and estimating methods. She is a sports and outdoors enthusiast and is dedicated to animal rescue efforts for Dachshunds. George resides in Jacksonville, Fla.

Marguerite and Mike Mumford formally opened their initial office in Jacksonville in 1995. The franchise serves customers in Duval, Clay, Baker and Nassau counties. In April, the company expanded its service territory to serve customers in Alachua, Bradford, Dixie, Gilchrist, Lafayette, Levy and Union counties. Paul Davis is located at 3499 NW 97th Blvd, Ste. #10 in Gainesville and maintains its headquarters at 5795 Mining Terrace in Jacksonville.
