Paul Davis Restoration to sponsor sporting clay shoot for the Boys & Girls Clubs of Nassau County

Jacksonville, Fla. – August 22, 2011 – Paul Davis Restoration of North Florida will serve as a sponsor for an upcoming event to benefit the Boys & Girls Clubs of Nassau County. In support of the Nassau County Fire/Rescue Professionals, Local 3101, the Paul Davis office has donated $1,000 towards the organization's 2011 Patriot Day Sporting Clay Shoot to be held on Friday, September 9. Beginning at 10 am, the shoot will be held at Amelia Shotgun Sports, 86300 Hot Shot Trail in Yulee. This is the fourth year for the Patriot Day Sporting Clay Shoot.

The Boys and Girls Clubs of Nassau County provide local children with hope and opportunity; a safe place to learn and grow; develop ongoing relationships with caring, adult professionals, and an opportunity to participate in life-enhancing programs and character development experiences.

The sporting clay shoot competition consists of five person teams shooting at 10 different stations. Awards will be distributed for teams with the best overall score. The day will conclude with a dinner, presentation of awards, and a raffle prize drawing. Skill levels of all types are available to participate in this event.

The Fire/Rescue Professional Union selected the Boys & Girls Clubs of Nassau County as beneficiary for the event because “we really are impressed with the role Boys & Girls Clubs serves in helping local youth,” said Chris Gamble, Fire/Rescue professional and event organizer. “We help the kids with fire safety and focus on efforts to give back to our community.”

Pre-registration is available before September 1. Individuals are $90 and teams are $450. The event limited to 150 shooters (30 teams). After September 1, there will be a cost increase. Online payment is accepted. Visit the website at www.patriotdayshoot.com or email info@patriotdayshoot.com. For more information, call Chris Gamble at 904.753.4644.
