Middletown Restoration Company starts 2,000th job in 11 years -Paul Davis Restoration of Hudson Valley begins high-profile fire restoration-

Middletown, NY – February 17, 2011 – Bruce Decker, owner of Paul Davis Restoration of Hudson Valley has announced a recent company achievement with the 2,000th job started in the firm's 11 year history. According to Decker, the project at 104 Route 284 in Unionville, NY is a major fire loss. The Walsh family's highly publicized house fire occurred in January next to the Unionville Fire Station. The project will require Paul Davis to provide extensive restoration, reconstruction and contents cleaning services.

Paul Davis Restoration of the Hudson Valley responded to the disaster and provided immediate support to the family while securing and preparing the home for the current restoration work.

"We are pleased to announce the company's milestone and look forward to our work for the Walsh family. Thankfully, no one in the family was harmed because of the fire," said Decker. "The fire broke out in an upstairs bedroom at the two-story home and was quickly contained by the local fire department located just next door. However, the resulting fire, smoke and water damage made the residence unsafe and unlivable for the family," he said. "We determined the house structure along with interior areas and some of the contents can be dried, cleaned and restored."

Paul Davis' team of 50 highly-trained and certified technicians and subcontractors will continue work on the job through April. "We are very pleased to have the Walsh family as our 2,000th customer. Our expertise and knowledge in the restoration field will ensure that exceptional customer service is provided," said Decker.

Decker has owned and operated the Paul Davis office in Middletown since 2000. For more information, contact the Paul Davis office at 845.361.1840. Visit the website at www.callpaulny.com.
