Paul Davis Restoration helps local families during the holidays

Charlotte, NC – December 20, 2011 - Abbie and Scott Bailey, owners of the local Paul Davis office along with six of their staff members participated in this year's Salvation Army and KISS 95.1 FM holiday community service program, "Breaking and Entering." Paul Davis Restoration of Charlotte donated a wide variety of goods and services to families in need on December 14 and 15 with staff time, labor, and expertise along with warm clothing, a bicycle, and toys, plus appliance installation, to name a few.

Each year since 1996, the program has featured the Salvation Army, KISS 95.1 radio station staff, local companies, and volunteers who help deserving families with surprise visits during the Christmas season while providing numerous essentials.

This year, the Paul Davis office participated in helping two families in Charlotte as part of the company's annual "Restoring America" program which helps residents and neighborhoods in need throughout the U.S.

"We are very excited to be able to donate our services to help the Salvation Army, KISS 95.1 radio station, and local families," said Abbie Bailey. Throughout the holiday season, Paul Davis also provided toys to help with Toys for Tots and the Denver, NC Fire Department toy distribution to needy families in Lincoln County. Paul Davis also provided Christmas stockings stuffed with toys and other items for the Charlotte Association of Insurance Professionals. The organization will distribute the stockings and toys to children and families in the area.

"We participate in philanthropic events as part of our daily business," Bailey said. "All of the community service work we do is truly a combined effort of our dedicated staff along with friends and family who donate their time and resources," she added. "We are honored to give during this joyous time of year."
