Paul Davis Restoration to help those in need through Toys for Tots and Crisis Assistance Ministry

Charlotte, NC – December 3, 2010 – Scott Bailey, Paul Davis Restoration office owner, has announced the company's participation in this year's Marine "Toys for Tots" campaign. The local business will also help Mecklenburg County families through Crisis Assistance Ministry. According to Bailey, the staff at Paul Davis Restoration is proud to assist local families during the holidays and throughout the year.

Toys for Tots campaigns are conducted annually in more than 500 communities in all 50 states and in the District of Columbia and Puerto Rico. There are more than 20,000 Marines, Marine Corps League members, veteran Marines, and local businesses and volunteers involved in the annual campaign. Crisis Assistance Ministry provides emergency financial assistance to prevent evictions and utility disconnections, as well as clothing and household items free of charge to people who are struggling financially in the Charlotte area.

"We look forward to helping families enjoy the holidays this year. Paul Davis Restoration continues to actively participate in programs to support the development of our nation's most valuable resources – children and their families," said Bailey. "This is the perfect time of year for us to help the community in a common cause as we assist with item collections and distribution. We believe this will contribute to improving our communities in the future," he said.

Specifically, Paul Davis Restoration staff will visit local insurance agents and adjusters at their offices to pick up donated new and unwrapped toys for the Toys for Tots program. Additionally, Bailey and his team will work with Gerald McIlwain, a Paul Davis mitigation technician, on a collection drive to benefit Crisis Assistance Ministry. McIlwain will collect clothing, food, and household items for the non-profit organization's Free Store in Paul Davis trucks and vans for several weeks.

"The ultimate success of the 'Toys for Tots' and Crisis Assistance Ministry campaigns depend on the generosity of the people who donate toys. We highly encourage our neighbors, friends and business associates to join us in supporting these worthwhile programs," said Bailey.

Since 2007, Bailey has owned the Paul Davis office at 2205-A Distribution Center Drive in Charlotte. For more information, call (704) 399-2488 or visit the website at www.pdr-restorationofcharlotte.com.
