Paul Davis Restoration to hold open house at new office and warehouse in Bremerton on Sept. 8

Bremerton, WA – August 16, 2011 - Paul Davis Restoration of Olympic Peninsula will hold an open house event on Thursday, September 8 from 12 pm to 5 pm at the company's warehouse, 5538 Cruiser Loop SW in Bremerton, WA. According to Tammy Heuser, Paul Davis office owner, the open house event is free and open to the public. Tours of the facility and demonstrations will be set-up to display the company's areas of expertise including emergency mitigation, restoration and remodeling. Refreshments, giveaways and a raffle will be featured.

The new office facility is approximately 8,400 square feet and is located in Olympic View Industrial Park, near Hwy. 3 and across from the Port of Bremerton. Paul Davis Restoration of Olympic Peninsula serves Kitsap, Mason and parts of Jefferson County. "Area property owners, insurance professionals, construction suppliers, vendors and contractors are invited to our open house, plus we welcome anyone from the community who wishes to attend," said Heuser. "We look forward to meeting everyone who is interested in learning about the company's services and business philosophy, standards and customer pledge along with what they need to know about working with Paul Davis Restoration."

Paul Davis Restoration of Olympic Peninsula was established by John Elliott along with Ray and Tammy Heuser and has been serving the area since 2007. All three owners are local residents and attribute the growth of the company to successful industry training. Paul Davis technicians hold certifications from the Institute of Inspection, Cleaning, Restoration and Certification (IICRC) in water and fire damage restoration, and fire and smoke remediation along with certifications in Advanced Structural Drying (ASD) and contents restoration.
