Paul Davis Emergency Services to host continuing education courses for insurance professionals

St. Marys, GA – July 15, 2011 – Rana Killough, owner of Paul Davis Emergency Services in Camden County, GA will host ongoing continuing education (CE) courses for insurance agents and adjusters and a special two hour Lead Safety course for property managers in the St. Marys and Kingsland, GA area. The courses will include topics such as Agency Customer Service, Mold Prevention, and Fire Damage Mitigation, among others.

Property managers can participate in the lead safety course for credits with the National Board of Certification for Community Association Managers(NBC-CAM). Group discussion and course participation by attendees is encouraged and instructors will be available to answer questions. Breakfast or lunch is provided plus giveaways and drawings for prizes.

On July 12, the course on Ethics in the Insurance Industry was attended by local insurance agents and adjusters at La Quinta Inn and Suites in Kingsland. A continental breakfast was served and door prizes were distributed, including gift certificates, hotel stays and spa facials. The event was sponsored by La Quinta Inn & Suites of Kingsland and Mary Kay Beauty Consultant, Chris Daniels.

Paul Davis Emergency Services specializes in rapid emergency mitigation services including board-ups, water and fire response, and mold removal. Services are available 24 hours a day with an emergency on-site arrival time within two hours in Camden, Charlton, and Ware counties, and parts of Brantley County. The business is located at 300 Osborne St. in St. Marys, GA.

Owners, Rana Killough and Paul Drayton, have more than eight years in the emergency services and water damage restoration industry. They are certified from The Institute of Inspection, Cleaning and Restoration Certification (IICRC).
