Paul Davis Emergency Services donates $1,200 as top sponsor for SS. Peter & Paul Catholic School's 12th Annual Golf Tournament, May 13

Collinsville, Ill. – April 13, 2011 – Garrett Maun, owner of Paul Davis Emergency Services of Collinsville, is pleased to announce the company's sponsorship of the SS. Peter & Paul Catholic School's 12th Annual Golf Tournament. The event will be held on Friday, May 13 at Arlington Greens golf facility, 200 Arlington Drive in Granite City, IL. The tournament begins with a four person scramble registration at 10 am, shotgun start at 12 pm, awards and dinner at 6 pm, and live entertainment from 6:30 - 9:30 pm.

Specifically, Maun made the donation for a variety of activities that will benefit SS. Peter & Paul Catholic School's "The Annual Fund". The Maun family lives in Collinsville and the two children attend the local school.

In addition, to the golf tournament, the May 13 fundraising efforts will include a fun run, picnic and other events. For more information about event sponsorships, registration and cost for golfers and non-golfers, visit the website at www.ssppgolfscramble.com.

Maun recently opened his Paul Davis business to serve customers in Madison, St. Clair, and Monroe, and surrounding counties including Belleville, Fairview Heights, Collinsville, Edwardsville and Waterloo. The office is located at 6851 Clay School Road in Collinsville.

Paul Davis Emergency Services specializes in rapid-response emergency mitigation services including board-ups, water and fire damage restoration, mold removal, and trauma cleanup. The company provides services 24 hours a day and guarantees to respond to emergencies within two hours.
