Paul Davis Emergency Services of Ellis County opens new office in Waxahachie, Texas

Waxahachie, Tx. – Paul Davis Emergency Services of Ellis County, a leading provider of fire, water and mold damage restoration services for residential and commercial properties, is pleased to announce the grand opening of the new franchise office. The company is owned by Katie and Scott Northern and specializes in rapid emergency mitigation services including board-ups, water and fire response, and mold removal. Services are available 24 hours a day with an emergency on-site arrival time within two hours.

The office is located at 3901 South Hwy 287 Waxahachie, Texas and provides professional services for customers in Ellis County and the surrounding communities.

Formerly, Scott Northern served as a civilian in Afghanistan as an excavation contractor. Kate Northern served in the U.S. Air Force. They previously owned an emergency mitigation services company and have more than three years of experience in the restoration industry. The couple has more than 20 years of combined experience as managers and business owners.

Katie Northern is a member of the Navarro County American Business Women's Association and the National American Business Women's Association. The couple has joined the Ennis Chamber of Commerce and Waxahachie Chamber of Commerce as business members. Recently, the Northerns helped property owners in need during the devastating floods in New Jersey with water damage restoration and repair work throughout the state. Scott and Katie Northern are certified from the The Clean Trust, formerly known as the Institute of Inspection, Cleaning, Restoration and Certification (IICRC).

“Paul Davis Emergency Services is committed to being part of the community and will provide a much needed service in our area,” said Katie Northern. “We approach each Paul Davis project with quality, respect, and professionalism. Every job is both a great honor and great responsibility, and each customer is very important to us,” she said. For more information, call 972-692-5101 or email knorthern@pdes-usa.net.
