Paul Davis Emergency Services hires operations manager to serve customers in Waycross

Waycross, Ga. – October 20, 2011 – Rana Killough, owner of Paul Davis Emergency Services is pleased to announce the hiring of Eric Lee as Operations Manager to serve customers in Ware County. Lee is a long time resident of Waycross. He has vast experience in water damage restoration, mold remediation and fire and smoke cleanup. Lee is certified as a Water Restoration Technician in Advanced Structural Drying (ASD) by The Clean Trust, formerly known as The Institute of Inspection, Cleaning, and Restoration Certification (IICRC).

In June, Killough and her husband and business partner Paul Drayton established their office headquarters in St. Marys to serve customers in Ware, Camden, Charlton and parts of Brantley counties along with other communities in Southeast Georgia. The company specializes in rapid emergency mitigation services including board-ups, water and fire response, and mold removal. Services are available 24 hours a day with an emergency on-site arrival time within two hours in the service territory.

“We are pleased to announce that Eric has joined our team. Paul Davis is committed to providing quick response time during emergency situations in and around the Waycross area,” said Killough. “Eric will help us set the standard in the emergency response for residential and commercial property customers who suffer loss caused by water, mold, storms, and other forms of property damage.”

Killough and Drayton have more than eight years in the emergency services and water damage restoration industry. They are certified from The Clean Trust, formerly known as the Institute of Inspection, Cleaning and Restoration Certification (IICRC).
