Paul Davis Emergency Services donates services to Family Promise in Stroudsburg

Stroudsburg, PA – May 27, 2011 – Jim Amici, Will Hund and Eileen Davall, owners of Paul Davis Emergency Services of Monroe County, recently donated labor and materials to Family Promise, a non-profit organization in Stroudsburg. The Paul Davis office provided structural clean-up and restoration services along with emergency mitigation of ground water and chemically treated the entire Family Promise facility.

The Paul Davis team supplied professional fans and dehumidifiers along with their expertise as certified technicians from the Institute of Inspection, Cleaning and Restoration Certification (IICRC) in Applied Structural Drying (ASD). They also provided follow-up and monitoring of the drying process. Amici responded to the non-profit's emergency needs during a busy time at the center where homeless families receive care and shelter.

The Paul Davis office donated its services through the company's annual philanthropic initiative, Restoring America. Paul Davis offices nationwide donate to those who are physically or financially unable to improve their properties and provide individuals and families with a safe and comfortable environment.

Family Promise of Monroe County provides temporary assistance to families who find themselves homeless through a coordinated effort among more than a dozen community partners. Family Promise is located at 901 N. Fifth St., Suite A in Stroudsburg. For more information, call 570-420-8589. Visit the website at www.familypromisepa.com.

Amici, his partners and staff are committed to the community as business professionals and volunteers. Paul Davis provides a needed service in the local area with emergency response to residential and commercial property catastrophes that are caused by water, mold, storms, and other forms of property damage such as vandalism and trauma clean up.
