Paul Davis office honored by Anchor Bay Chamber of Commerce - Local restoration company receives first time 2011 Crossover Award -

Harrison Twp., MI – December 9, 2011 – The Paul Davis Restoration office serving customers in Macomb and St. Clair counties has been awarded the 2011 Crossover Award from the Anchor Bay Chamber of Commerce (ABCC). The award was accepted by Paul Maysura, who serves as Paul Davis' marketing representative and business development manager, at the Annual Holiday Gala and Festival of Trees and the Annual Awards ceremony on Dec. 2.

According to Paul Maysura, the honor is particularly special this year because it is the first time the award has been designated by the Chamber and its collaborative relationship with the Sterling Heights Regional Chamber of Commerce and Industry (SHRCCI). The Crossover Award is presented to a SHRCCI member who has demonstrated the greatest amount of support for the ABCC and the community. Additionally, U.S. Representative Candice Miller (MI-10) presented the Paul Davis office with a Special Congressional Recognition as part of the recognition for service to the community.

“During the past year we have supported the ABCC by attending and sponsoring member events including last year's Holiday Gala and Festival of Trees. We also donated cooling fans for the beer tent at the annual Fish Fly Festival, among others,” said Maysura. “We are committed to involvement in the local business community and to providing exceptional customer service. We are also dedicated to providing ongoing community service work for local residents in need and who are less fortunate.”
