Paul Davis National names John F. Fleming as executive vice president of insurance services

Jacksonville, FL – October 4, 2011 - Paul Davis National, large loss specialists for Paul Davis Restoration, has named John F. Fleming as executive vice president of insurance services. Fleming will be responsible for overseeing the company’s commercial insurance claims department and business development. Fleming will be assisting insurance professionals with large loss projects in flooding, fires, earthquakes, tornadoes, wind damage and other catastrophic events. Fleming joins the company to grow the commercial insurance lines in large loss work for the Paul Davis franchise.

For more than 35 years, Fleming has vast experience in the commercial insurance claims and large loss industry. Fleming has served as a senior level executive for two of the largest claims adjusting companies in the U.S. He also held executive level positions in claims management, marketing, training and quality control. Throughout his career as a business development professional, Fleming has attained record sales along with closing of several of the largest U.S. claims services programs in recent U.S. history. He is a Commercial Property General Adjuster and has extensive experience in the investigation, evaluation, negotiation, and resolution of commercial property claims and complex coverage in large loss projects. Fleming will work in the company’s Atlanta office. He resides in Roswell, GA.

According to Howdy Russell, Paul Davis National partner and corporate spokesperson, Fleming’s status as a Property General Adjuster and his extensive background in the commercial insurance and large loss sector is a great benefit to the company and its carrier clients. “We welcome John to Paul Davis and look forward to his expertise in the field. He will help us to expand our commercial customer base and deliver exceptional service.”
