Paul Davis Restoration offices approved for emergency board-ups with local American Red Cross

Sterling, VA – July 7, 2011 - Paul Davis Restoration offices in Northern and Central Virginia, two leading providers of fire and water damage clean up and restoration services, will provide emergency board-up services for the local American Red Cross. The restoration company is approved by the Red Cross to assist property owners following a fire, flood, storm, hurricane or tornado, and other emergencies. The service will be provided at approved properties in Stafford, Fauquier, City of Fredericksburg, Spotsylvania and Caroline Counties.

“Paul Davis Restoration will provide board-ups to secure structures at no charge, in circumstances where the Red Cross needs our help with property owners who have suffered damage to their homes and businesses,” said Kevin Sullivan, Paul Davis owner in Northern Virginia. “Our offices have met the criteria to work with the Red Cross and have agreed to the requirements set forth by area fire departments,” he said.

“We recognize that leaving homes exposed to the elements after a disaster can lead to further damage,” said Sullivan. “We are honored to be working with the Red Cross and local fire departments to ensure that exceptional service is provided to homeowners in need.”

Paul Davis Restoration of Northern Virginia is owned by Kevin and Tim Sullivan at 44880 Falcon Place, Suite 105 in Sterling, VA. Paul Davis Restoration of Central Virginia is owned by Joe Duman at 45 D Business Park Drive in Ruckerville, VA. The Paul Davis offices employ full time technicians who are trained in Institute of Inspection, Cleaning and Restoration Certification (IICRC) standards for inspection, cleaning and disaster restoration.
