Paul Davis Restoration and Remodeling of Southeast Wisconsin donates to the MACC Fund Annual charity golf outing has raised thousands of dollars for those in need since 2006

Milwaukee, WI – October 7, 2010 – Dan Druml, Paul Davis Restoration and Remodeling of Southeast Wisconsin office owner, announced today that his company held their annual Paul Davis Charity Golf Tournament on October 4 benefiting the MACC Fund. More than 100 golfers attended the event at Blue Mound Golf and Country Club in Wauwatosa, WI. The outing included lunch, a round of golf, gifts, raffle items and a formal dinner. Druml's organization has raised hundreds of thousands of dollars for non-profits throughout southeast Wisconsin to help those who suffer from cancer and ALS, and for burn victims.

The MACC Fund, Midwest Athletes Against Childhood Cancer, Inc. is a non-profit organization that supports research into the treatment and cure of childhood cancer and other related blood disorders. Visit the website at www.maccfund.org.

“For four years, the staff at Paul Davis Restoration and Remodeling has been able to successfully host the Paul Davis Charity Golf event with support from hundreds of our customers, friends, vendors and subcontractors,” said Druml. “With much thought and regard we have decided to continue our mission to raise funds for those in need through the annual event which raises money for local causes and charities,” he said. “We express our thanks and appreciation to all those who participated this year and enjoyed our event to help the MACC Fund.”

In order to raise money for the MACC Fund, the employees of Paul Davis have been working throughout the year on various events to benefit the non-profit including the Ridin' for Research Event, Women for MACC's Pasta Fest, WTMJ's Sports Auction and Midwest Airlines/Laacke & Joys BOB & BRIAN's Plane Pull which has raised more than $230,000.
