Paul Davis Restoration Donates to Local Organizations and Families

Virginia Beach, VA – December 1, 2010 – Paul Davis Restoration of Virginia Beach has donated $2,000 to match local charity funds for families in need during the holiday season. The donations will go to Edmarc Hospice for Children and Alice’s Angels in Virginia Beach in partnership with the Blue Goose International chapter of Portsmouth, VA.

On Dec. 7, Paul Davis’ Butch Beckman, Director of Business Development, will present the $1,000 donations to each organization at the local Blue Goose International organization’s holiday event at Crown Plaza Hotel in Norfolk, VA. Beckman stated, “During the holidays, many families struggle to make ends meet and individuals can go without proper food and shelter,” said Beckman. “Paul Davis Restoration gives back to the communities we serve each year by providing a variety of donated services and materials,” he said. “We are honored to work with professionals who help to improve the lives of our neighbors.”

Butch Beckman is a member of The Honorable Order of the Blue Goose International chapter in Portsmouth, VA. The organization is a fraternal organization of men and women who work in the property/casualty insurance industry. The local Blue Goose chapter raises funds for Edmarc Hospice for Children, which offers home healthcare, hospice, and bereavement support in Portsmouth. The chapter also raises funds for Alice’s Angels, a privately-funded shelter for the homeless and families in Virginia Beach.
