Paul Davis Restoration collecting items for homeless shelters

Kernersville, NC – November 4, 2011 – Paul Davis Restoration - Triad, Inc. is helping those less fortunate by collecting items needed for homeless shelters in Lexington, Thomasville, and Winston-Salem, NC.

According to the Alliance to End Homelessness, more than 600,000 families with 1.35 million children experience homelessness each year in the U.S. “Families are becoming the fastest growing sector of the homeless population nationally. And locally, many people are experiencing homelessness due to job loss, an unexpected crisis, an illness or from housing costs,” said Joey Moore, Paul Davis office owner.

The Paul Davis office is providing local businesses, offices, classrooms, and other locations with collection boxes and lists of the items needed by local shelters. The restoration firm will deliver the boxes to locations during November and will return for pick up during early December. When all collections have been accumulated, Paul Davis will deliver and provide the shelters with items and a list of donors.
