Paul Davis Restoration of Greater Wabash Valley opens for business

Terre Haute, IN – October 29, 2010 – Paul Davis Restoration has opened for business at 2946 South 13th Street in Terre Haute. Local owners Michael Rayman, Bob Corbin and their staff of technicians will serve customers in Vermillion, Parke, Putnam, Vigo, Clay, Greene, Owen and Sullivan counties.

Paul Davis will host a grand opening party and ribbon-cutting at the new space on Wednesday, November 3. A ribbon-cutting will be held at 11 am with City of Terre Haute Mayor Duke Bennett and the Terre Haute Chamber of Commerce. From 11 am until 2 pm, lunch will be served with tours of the facility. The event is open to the public.

Rayman will oversee the daily operations of the office. He is a former insurance adjuster with more than 17 years of experience in the field with vast experience and knowledge in the emergency mitigation and restoration industry.

“We are very pleased to open our business in Terre Haute. Paul Davis Restoration works hard to serve residential and commercial customers. Our business has a reputation for performance, integrity and responsibility,” said Rayman. “Our work includes small to large jobs in restoration, emergency response, water and fire damage restoration, contents restoration and mold removal, to name a few,” he said.

The Paul Davis staff is certified from the Institute of Inspection, Cleaning and Restoration Certification (IICRC) in standards for inspection, cleaning and disaster restoration including fire, water and smoke restoration, along with applied structural drying and mold remediation. Paul Davis Restoration Inc. is a national franchisor with office locations throughout North America since 1966.
